

Generate More Pipeline & Close More Deals All Within a Single Pane of Glass in Salesforce

Conquer Cadence is the only Sales Engagement Platform (SEP) to provide full access to all communication channels from inside Salesforce. No application switching required.

- > Orchestrate omnichannel cadences across voice, email, SMS, video, and social channels.
- > Improve rep effectiveness and maintain high adoption rates with our easy-to-use platform.
- > Utilize flexible, strategic automation and decision points to ensure high value, contextual communication with every touch.
- > Trust in a partner, not just another vendor. We invest the time with you to take your best sales processes and replicate them across your team.

Large Enterprises Trust Conquer to Power Their Sales Teams

“It’s not just a spray-and-pray methodology like back in the day. This is helping you plan your day; you use this tool to simplify your process all in one view. Conquer has made me more efficient and I have smarter conversations.

- District Manager, ADP
